PSCH/Pederson-Krag Salutes Its Social Workers

“Our social workers play a key ‘front line’ role in helping our program participants cope with their challenges more effectively while improving their lives. We thank you for your expertise and compassion.”

Shavone Hamilton, LCSW, Chief Operating Officer, PSCH-PK

We join the National Association of Social Workers in celebrating March as Social Work month. This celebration provides PSCH-Pederson-Krag with the unique opportunity to recognize and highlight the important contributions social workers make to our agency and society. Social work is one of the fastest growing professions in the United States, with more than 600,000 people employed in the field.

The 2016 Social Work Month theme – Forging Solutions Out of Challenges – celebrates the work done of all social workers who improve lives and communities. PSCH-PK employs some 87 social workers, both direct service and clinical. These talented individuals help more than 1,500 people each day solve and cope with problems in their everyday lives. Our clinical social workers, who diagnose and treat mental, behavioral, and emotional issues, assist many populations, including youth, people with disabilities and those with addictions.

They confront some of the most challenging issues facing individuals, families, communities and society and forge solutions that help people reach their full potential. It is with deepest respect and gratitude that we salute our very own change agents – the PSCH/Pederson-Krag social workers.
