

(L-R) Melva M. Miller, Queens Deputy Borough President; Sue Boyle, Director HR Services, PSCH and Shurn Anderson, Special Assistant for Economic Development, Queens.

PSCH Winter Job Fair Draws Eager Queens Job Seekers

“ We are pleased to partner with PSCH in sponsoring their Winter Job Fair, offering Queens residents valuable career and employment opportunities. ”

Melinda Katz, President, Borough of Queens

A rainy day did not dampen the spirits of some 50 job seekers on February 24, 2016 at the PSCH Job Recruitment Fair. The event was sponsored by Queens Borough President Melinda Katz at Queens Borough Hall.

Applicants discovered career opportunities for health care professionals and support staff at PSCH. “Empowering individuals to lead more independent lives and strengthening communities.” This is the mission of PSCH/ Pederson-Krag. Applicants spoke of their talents, skills and experience and how they could improve the lives of others. Jose J. noted, “It is a valuable experience just getting to speak with a local employer. Maybe PSCH will find my skills a good match for their program needs.”

(L-R) Carmen C. interviews with Lashawn Sutherland, Jr. Recruiter Specialist, PSCH for work with special populations.

There are openings for Direct Support Professionals, Residence Supervisors, Assistant Residence Manager, Medical Appointment Coordinator, Case Managers, Maintenance Workers, HR Associates and Executive Assistants. “At PSCH, our staff is valued and inspired to provide Quality, Caring and Effective services, said Sue Boyle, Director, HR Services. “We provide competitive salaries and offer excellent benefits too.”

If you could not attend or know someone who would interested in applying, contact our HR Department online at www.psch.org or email your resume to careers@psch.org ■