WellLife Network is pleased to announce that Danielle Dominique, Direct Service Professional, has won the 2017 NYSADSP Direct Support Provider of the Year Award for the NYC Region. Ms. Dominique assists individuals at WellLife Network's Astoria Day Habilitation program. Danielle was chosen from amongst a group of very deserving nominees, and we are proud that she was selected for her exemplary work and accomplishments. Her supervisor, Lynda Ikuoyemwen-Ehiorobo remarked, “Danielle is one of the most caring and loving support staff at WellLife Network, she is a remarkable woman with a giving and loving heart. She is a friend, caregiver, life coach and teacher.”

The Award Ceremony was held at the New York State Association of Day Service Providers (NYSDASP) Annual Symposium on November 8th, 2017. Upon receiving the award, Danielle stated, “Thank you for this great honor. I let the individuals I work with know that I care for them and that they are like family.”

WellLife Network congratulates Danielle Dominique and recognizes the dedication of our more than 600 day service providers professionals for the immeasurable difference they make each and every day in the lives of people in their care. ■
